HELP IS AVAILABLE, RIGHT HERE

You may qualify for FREE legal representation.

California Indian Legal Services, home of the Remote Housing Assistance Program, is providing housing legal services at no cost to Urban Native Americans. You can speak to an attorney using one of our remote workstations, located in Los Angeles, Oakland, and Sacramento.

See below for location and office hours when you can drop in and speak to an attorney, or visit www.calindian.org/rhap for more detailed information and to schedule an appointment.
